Coyote Universe Series by Allen M. Steele - Goodreads

The second installment in Allen Steele's "Coyote Trilogy" starts right where the seminal first book left off, namely the separation between the original arrivals to the one habitable moon in the Ursae Majoris 47 star system and the subsequent waves of ill-prepared and ill-equipped colonists that follow them.

Coyote Rising (Coyote Trilogy, #2) by Allen M. Steele

As with the previous books, Steele jumps from one POV character to another as Earth again makes contact with Coyote and sets up a wormhole-like transportation system which allows near-instantaneous travel between the two planets.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Coyote Frontier (Coyote Trilogy)

Steele weaves several plots and subplots masterfully together. This turned out to be the first of at least three Coyote novels, and it sets the stage well for those that follow. The book contains a list of the main characters and several maps of the 47 Ursae Majoris system and the moon on which the colonists land, which are very helpful.
